Mr. Smith,

Mr. Seale was out of town yesterday and is out of town today. He will be in town and in the office for only a few short minutes tomorrow and leaving town for the weekend shortly thereafter. I will not be in the office tomorrow or Friday due to a death in the family. I apologize for the craziness of our schedules and that we did not contact you yesterday regarding the parties' planning meeting report.

Accordingly, attached, please find a draft of the Report of Rule 26(f) Parties' Planning Meeting in connection with this case. If you find the attached acceptable, please advise and I will electronically file same with the Court this afternoon. If you have any suggested revisions/changes, please do not hesitate to give me a call.
